

Gilchrist Named Top Hospice by Jewish Times Readers

Hunt Valley, Md., July 6, 2020

Gilchrist was named ‘Top Hospice’ in the Jewish Times 2020 Readers’ Choice Poll, published on June 17. Each year, readers submit their choices for best businesses, services, schools, and more in the community, and then vote for their top picks.

“Gilchrist is proud to be chosen as the ‘Top Hospice’ in the 2020 Best of Jewish Baltimore,” said Sherri Zaslow, chair of the Jewish Hospice Advisory Board at Gilchrist. In addition to serving on the board, Ms. Zaslow has personally experienced Gilchrist’s care and understands how much it means when hospice services are attuned to a family’s cultural and spiritual needs.

“There are no words to express my appreciation to the Gilchrist nurses and doctors who surrounded my husband and our family with warmth and respect, whether through words or deeds or their sensitivity to our Jewish approach.”

Gilchrist’s Jewish Hospice program provides hospice care and services that are sensitive to the customs, rituals and laws around which Jewish patients and their families have built meaningful and fulfilling lives. The program is one of Gilchrist’s many services that provide care and support to patients and their families of all religions, at every stage of serious illness.
